WHITE HALL SOCIAL CLUB.

Lovely Woman Wins on the Question of Will Power.

(Special Dispatch to The Times,) WHITE HALL, VA., Jan. 8.—The White Hall Social Club, which has re cently been organized here for the purpose of "promoting sociability and the study of music and literature," had a delightful meeting at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Clarke Thursday night. One of the attractive features of each meeting is a debate upon some question previously selected by the committee of entertainment. The question debated at the last meeting was, in substance, whether or not will poss found its highest development in woman or man. Some very in-genious arguments were presented pro and con, and flashes of wit and humor occasionally enlivened the progress of the debate, but at the last when the vote was taken, the women were at the front, and,

as usual, triumphed.

The lovers of music who were present had a feast. The opening chorus was charmingly rendered, and the interludes between the more serious business of the meeting were rendered delightfully by duets, trios, solos, etc. Mrs. W. A. Moss, an accomplished musician and prominent in social life at White Hall, has done uch to make the club meetings entertaming and pleasant, and she has been very ably assisted, particularly in the mudeal work, by Misses Watsie Elliott, Gertie Price and Lillian Coghill. Miss Boatwright contributed largely to the pleasure of the meeting by reading a hu-morous selection in a very happy manner. This is a most difficult thing to do, as all This is a most difficult thing to do, as all of us know who have tried it—perhaps it is more difficult than to correctly therpret music. It was decided to hold the next fornightly meeting of the club at the residence of Mrs. J. R. Elam, and then the club adjourned, each member taking with them the pleasurable sense of having been delightfully entertained.

This is not altogether a woman's club, as might be supposed from the foregoing, but they dominate it and control it just

NEW RESIDENTIAL SECTION.

Norfolk and Richmond Capitalists Purchase a Large Tract of Land,

Through Messrs. H. L. Page & Company, Mr. Alfred P. Thom, counsel for General Carpentier, of New York, yester day sold to a syndicate composed of Norfolk and Richmond capitalists, a tract of land in Atlantic City Ward for $70,000. The property is situated just the other side of Tarrent's Creek and consists of about eighty acres of land with riparian rights.
It is the intention of the gentlemen who purchased the property to organize a company and select a suitable name for the property. It will then be improved, broad avenues will be laid out, sidewalks proad avenues will be fail out, slaw and prayed with granolithic paving and gran ite curbing put down. After all these contemplated improvements have been made the property will be placed on the market and building lots offered for sale.

This new suburb of Norfolk, or rather a new portion of the Sixth Ward, promless to make a most desirable residential section, as it is convenient to the busi-ness section of the city. Among the improvements that will be made first is the construction of a hand-some new free bridge to the property from the foot of North Street.—Norfolk

Mr. Ellyson's Withdrawal.

There was no probability of his nomination, except as a compromise candidate, and even that probability was candidate, and even that probability was greatly diminished by the ancient and unreasonable prejudice in the rural mind against any candidate coming from Richmond. Mr. Ellyson has served the party long and faithfully and at much sacrifice, and from a partisan point of view, no less than on grounds of personal merit, deserves the choicest honors in the gift of the party.—Petersburg Index.Appeal

Christmas Crimes. The Christmas that has just passed, like many which have preceded it, witnessed many acts of crime and ruffianism in all many acts of crime and rumanism in all parts of the country.

The press tells of many disgusting and revolting stories of how the Christmas time, which is symbolic of peace and good will, was made a time of riot, bloodshed and the exercise of the baser passions of men.

While such does not appear to be the case here, it does seem that in a great many places this prostitution of Christmas is becoming more general.

Of all times of the year the Christmas season should be observed as "a good time, a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time," as Chis. Dickens so apily expressed it. Some people, however, do not by their acts (for actions speak louder than words sometimes) do like they then words sometimes) do like they thought this to be so.
The Christmas holiday season is celebrated throughout the civilized world, but nowhere save in this country are such shocking crimes committed at this season. Why is this so? Whatever may be the cause, it is an undeniable fact and a grim satire on this country, which we boast of as being the leader in civilization and progress.-Orange Observer.

Idinois' Trial Trip.

From Newport News comes the an-nouncement that the builders' trial trip o the battleship Illinois will take place prob-ably on February 15th. All of the armor, except that for the turrets, is on the ship. non-arrival of the turret armor from Bethlehem has caused considerable delay in completing the vessel. The first trial of the ship will take place about twenty miles off Cape Henry and will be watched with interest, since the Illinois is a sister ship to the Alabama and Wisconsin, which recently had their official trial, during which they made high speed records. The people of Illinois are preparing a silver service for the ship, which will be presented when she goes into commission.
